

LEGAL RESEARCH MANAGER

The Alberta Law Reform Institute invites applications for a Research Manager for a three year term position in Edmonton. The main function of this position is to manage and supervise the research program for the Institute. In addition, the position requires someone to conduct research; engage in consultative exercises with the public, relevant government departments and the Bar and assist in all phases of the preparation of the Institute reports.

Applicants must have demonstrated project management abilities and professional supervision experience; a developed range of quality analytical and research skills and the ability to write well is critical, as is the ability to direct and lead policy debate.

Interested lawyers should apply in writing, with their curriculum vitae (including two referees), by November 28, 2005 to:

Peter J.M. Lown, Q.C., Director, Alberta Law Reform Institute, 402 Law Centre, University of Alberta, Edmonton, AB T6G 2H5

Information about the Institute can be found at the ALRI website:

www.law.ualberta.ca/alri/