

COURSE DESCRIPTION - FACULTY OF LAW

COURSE NUMBER: Law 613:X50

COURSE NAME: Corporate Securities

PREREQUISITE COURSES: Corporations Law

PREREQUISITE FOR:

CREDITS: 3 HOURS PER TERM: TERM: MAXIMUM ENROLMENT:

PROFESSOR: Andrew J. Chamberlain and Shane Stevenson

METHOD OF PRESENTATION: LECTURE

METHOD OF EVALUATION: Evaluation will consist of a mid-term written assignment representing 20% of the final grade and a written final exam representing 80% of the final grade.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The objectives of the course are:

1. To provide students with a general understanding of Alberta Securities Laws, including prospectus requirements and procedures, exemptions from prospectus and registration requirements, continuous disclosure requirements, insider trading rules and take-over bid rules.
 2. To enable students to identify securities laws issues and apply securities legislation and principals to transactions.
 3. To introduce students to practical aspects of a securities practice from the perspective of a securities practitioner.
-

SPECIAL COMMENTS:

EVENING CLASS:

REQUIRED TEXTS (IF ANY): Alberta Securities Act and Regulation (2011-2012)

RECOMMENDED TEXT: Securities Regulation in Canada (third edition) Mark T. Gillen